- DIY Kimchi + Hanbok: You can learn Korean history and culture through DIY Kimchi! Participants can taste the kimchi they make, have it packed up, and take it home with them. Hanbok(Korea's Traditional Clothing) expresses Korea's true characteristics in terms of culture and history. Just like chipao from China and kimono from Japan, Korea also boasts its own traditional garb, though people nowadays wear them only on special occasions or during national holidays.

- Gwangmyeong Cave: Gwangmyeong Cave is where joys and tears of coal mining workers remained intact. It was the heart of the evolution of modern industries in Korea and also a historical site of the Japanese colonial period. It takes pride itself as being the only one cave found in the metropolitan cities.
- Dongdaemun Market: Dongdaemun has every fashion item imaginable: fabric, clothes, accessories, and wedding goods. It is home to the largest clothing suppliers in Korea. Cheap and diverse clothes attract not just fashion leaders but also the average consumer. It has become a place frequented by major Korean and international buyers as well.

However, all of the palace buildings were later restored under the leadership of Heungseondaewongun during the reign of King Gojong (1852-1919).
- National Folklore Museum: Located inside Gyeongbokgung Palace, the National Folk Museum of Korea presents over 4,000 historical artifacts that were used in the daily lives of ordinary Korean people. It has three permanent and two special exhibitions as well as a library, souvenir shop, and other subsidiary facilities.

The unique buildings of Cheong Wa Dae are comprised of the Main Office, Yeongbingwan (Guest House), Chunchugwan (Spring and Autumn Pavilion), Nokjiwon (Green grass), the Mugunghwa (Rose of Sharon) Valley, and the Seven Palaces. They are unique and beautifully designed, built in the Korean traditional style.

- Seoul N Tower Square: Namsan Seoul Tower was the first tower-type tourism spot in Korea. The top of the tower is at almost 480m above sea level, making it one of the tallest towers in the Orient. This place has now become a popular date spot for couples. Like the Pont Neuf bridge in Paris, couples head to the tower to lock their "padlock of love" onto the railing and to dream that their love will last forever.

- Myeongdong Street: Myeong-dong is one of the primary shopping districts in Seoul. Common products for sale include clothes, shoes, and accessories. In addition, several major department stores have branches here, including Lotte Department Store, Shinsegae Department Store, Myeong-dong Migliore, Noon Square and M Plaza.
